

Donald N. Corcelli

Business

Mr. Corcelli graduated from Collinwood in January, 1949. He received a scholarship to Fenn College and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting.

While attending Fenn, he interned at Price Waterhouse a national accounting firm, After graduating, Don went into the U.S. Army and was assigned to the Corps of Engineers. His duties took him to Africa — Morocco and Asmara, Eritrea. After the tour of duty with the Army, Don rejoined Price Waterhouse and continued his education at Cleveland Marshall Law School. After graduation with a degree of Juris Doctor, and passing the Bar, he became President of a national construction company involved in building the Ftichielol Coliseum. Later he opened his own accounting firm that specialized in real estate development in Florida.

After developing and building numerous properties on Sanibell Island, Ft. Myers, Vanderbilt Beach, and Pelican Bay he founded Bluebell Properties and serves as President. Don has a related company of vacation properties with six offices from Ft. Myers to Marco Island with 100 employees.

Don resides in Naples, Florida with his wife, Mary, who is an active partner in the business.