

Dr. John Coletta
Medicine

Dr. Coletta graduated from Collinwood in 1952. He received his B.A. Degree from Ohio State University in 1956 and then his M.D. Degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1960.

After Internship and Residency at St. Luke's Hospital in Cleveland, Dr. Coletta served in the Army Medical Corp. in Korea from 1962-63. Dr. Coletta has served three times as President of the Medical Staff at Hillcrest Hospital. In addition, he has twice served as Chairman of the Div. of Family Medicine. He is Board certified in Family Practice and an ardent supporter of family medicine as a needed component in good medical care.

John Coletta is a past director of the Cleveland Academy of Medicine. He is a member and active participant in the American College of Family Physicians, Ohio State Medical Assoc. and the American Medical Association.

Dr. Colette is married to Linda and they have eight children.

Dr. Colette is a patron of the Arts and is interested in politics.