

Wallace Guenther

Sports

Wally is a 1952 graduate of Collinwood who attended and graduated from Ohio University and became an award winning newspaperman, a successful athlete and a coach.

Guenther, a reporter with the Plain Dealer, is now celebrating his 30th year in the newspaper business, 21 of which were with the Cleveland Press.

While at Collinwood he was a six year letterman as a distance runner in track and cross country. His track achievements continued at Ohio University, holding their cross country record. In 1960 he represented the United States as a member of the USA Cross Country Team that competed in the World International Championships in Brussels, Belgium.

During seven years, while he was working at the Cleveland Press, he coached John Carroll University's Cross Country team and distance runners.

Wally has received numerous awards for his work as a reporter in the Cleveland area. Currently he is the evening re-write reporter whose many articles you have seen on page 1. Guenther and his wife, Lori, have been married for 30 years and are the parents of four children. They live in Cleveland Heights, Ohio.
